

Payment Policy

Standard payment terms require approved invoices to be paid within 30 days of the invoice date.

Any extension beyond the standard payment period requires written finance approval.

The approved policy is the governing internal reference for payment exceptions.